Business After Hours is a Business Wangaratta initiative to allow the Wangaratta business community to visit and inspect a host business or an establishment each month, enjoy some local hospitality and network your business connections. There is no better opportunity than this to meet other businesses within our region on a regular basis. Learn about how other organisations do business here, share information and ideas, form friendships and even business partnerships. If you are looking for a better way to do business, then enjoy the evening and bring along a business colleague or two. If you are interested in attending Business After Hours please complete the registration form below.
